Personal Statement

I started life on a farm in the Waikato, have lived in town and country. For the past 30+ years I have been blessed to work in and with many industries from primary, manufacturing, retail, consulting, accounting firms, local and central government to not for profit. In 2012 we relocated to Auckland from Melbourne, where we had been living and working for 7 years. I am energetic and enthusiastic and am passionate about improving and helping organisations and people to achieve their goals. I have a passion for all things relational and within family and business. I love to work with others and bring out the best in them. I am looking to use my experience and knowledge, business, dispute resolution and family business best practice solutionist skills to meet family and business needs, particularly family businesses.
